

DEATH AUTO DRIVER HELD FOR COURT

A coroner's jury investigating the death of Mrs. Margaret Morris, 330 North street southeast, yesterday held Daniel Neipold, driver of a District watering truck, and Carroll Barnes, driver of the taxicab in which she was riding, for the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. Morris died at the Emergency Hospital Sunday morning as the result of injuries received in a collision between the automobile in which she was riding and the watering truck early Friday morning.

Both Neipold and Barnes were released on $500 bonds.

FORMER SAILOR FALLS TO DEATH

James Edward Keady, twenty years old, 3033 O street northwest, was killed yesterday when he fell thirty feet from a scaffold while working on the construction of the Key bridge near the south end of the Aqueduct bridge. Keady had only been working on the new bridge a few days.

According to the police, the young man was operating a pneumatic drill when he fell from the scaffold. Coroner Nevitt issued a certificate of accidental death.

Keady was discharged from the navy on August 21.

LONDONINTERLAKEN AIR ROUTE PLANNED

Negotiations for a flying service from London and Paris to Interlaken, Switzerland, with terminals at Lausanne and Lucerne, are pending between an English airplane concern and the Swiss government.

The airplane proposed to carry from thirty to forty passengers and to make the voyage from London to Interlaken within from eight to ten hours. The cost of the trip, it is stated, would not exceed first-class railway travel for a similar distance. The object is to restore tourist travel to Switzerland.

Resinol

heals itching skin troubles

Resinol Ointment usually stops itching at once. It quickly and easily heals most cases of eczema, rash or similar distressing skin eruptions, not due to serious internal conditions. Physicians prescribe Resinol Ointment regularly so you need not hesitate to try it.

Resinol Soap should usually be used with Resinol Ointment to prepare the skin to receive the Resinol medication. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists. Resinol Soap clears your complexion.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Lucy Wing, of Liberty, Me., says that when her little girl was run-down and very weak she began to give her Father John's Medicine and baby is now fat and healthy. She says that she makes this statement voluntarily and hopes that it will help others who have weak, sick children to get good results.

Mrs. George E. Lambert, 811 Western Ave., Berlin, N. H., says that Father John's Medicine is doing her children lots of good. They have had the whooping cough. She herself was run-down and nervous and since taking Father John's Medicine is feeling much better.

Why Do French Women Always Look Young?

In France mothers and daughters look like sisters. How are the women there able to retain their youthful looks until long past middle age? Is it because they use the famous French use of mercolized wax? This wax possesses a remarkable absorbent property which quickly removes the fine particles of cuticle which are constantly dying and which are the immediate cause of an old-looking complexion. Thus the livelier, healthier, younger skin beneath is given a chance to breathe and to show itself. Try this treatment yourself. Most likely it will not require two weeks to make your complexion as young, soft and beautiful as a young girl's. Just one ounce of mercolized wax (all American druggists have it) and you does the work. The wax is put on nights like cold cream and washed off mornings.

I HAVE TO LOOK FOR AN APARTMENT. I KNOW RENTS ARE HIGH SO I MUST BE PREPARED TO PAY MY LIMIT

IF I EAT LESS AND BUY FEWER CLOTHES, I'LL BE ABLE TO PAY $100 A MONTH - THAT IS THREE TIMES AS MUCH AS I EVER PAID

OUR CHEAPEST APARTMENT IS $125 A MONTH BUT THEY'RE ALL RENTED

I'M WILLING TO PAY $100 A MONTH

I HAD AN APARTMENT FOR $150 A MONTH - BUT IT WAS TAKEN THREE WEEKS AGO

WE HAD ONE CHEAP APARTMENT FOR $175 A MONTH, BOSS - BUT IT'S BEEN LEASED FOR SIX YEARS

I WAS ARRESTED FOR STEALING A SACK OF POTATOES AND I NEED A LAWYER

I'LL TAKE YOUR CASE FOR $50

I SHOUT LAWYER

FIFTY DOLLARS IS TOO MUCH - I'LL BE MY OWN LAWYER AND THROW MYSELF ON THE MERCY OF THE JUDGE

JUDGE - I KNOW YOU'RE A KIND MAN. I PLEAD GUILTY

SO DAYS!

NOT SO BAD! MY SALARY IS $5 A DAY, SO I ONLY LOSE $150.

WE HAVE ONE TWO-ROOM PLACE FOR $200 A MONTH - BUT IT'S BEEN PROMISED TO SIX DIFFERENT PEOPLE

OUR LAST APARTMENT WENT FOR $250 A MONTH SIX WEEKS AGO

I THINK THERE'S A MAN DOWN THE STREET WHO HAS AN APARTMENT TO RENT

SEE, I HOPE I GET THERE IN TIME

I'M CERTAINLY FORTUNATE - I GOT IT FOR $300 A MONTH!

Seth Bullock, Two Gun Sheriff, Friend of T. R., Dies in Deadwood, S. D.

Seth Bullock died yesterday in his home in Deadwood, S. D., and with his going fades away one of the last of the exemplars of the unbranded West that Bret Harte used to write about. He was sixty-two years old, and in those sixty-two years Seth Bullock had cranked enough excitement to keep a strenuous family on its toes for a century. He had been sick for several weeks.

He was a friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt, who made him United States Marshal of South Dakota and whom he guided through the Bad Lands of the Black Hills country on horse rustler chases and other expeditions that required grit, stamina and nerves that remained put.

He was as straight, as slender and as strong as a Saskatchewan spruce and he had the speed of a diamond back rattler. He looked like what he was. He was the Easterner's cherished vision of what the first Sheriff of Deadwood, S. D., ought to be and look like. What the movie hero of a Wild West drama tries to portray Capt. Bullock was and did.

He was born in Sandwich, Canada, just across the river from Detroit. He made tracks for the West as soon as he was able to saddle and ride a horse. He dismounted in South Dakota because the place looked good to him, and in succession he became miner, prospector and cattleman. Things becoming a trifle dull, he sought and obtained the precarious job of sheriff of Deadwood.

Stirling Days in Deadwood.

In these days Deadwood is in its formative stage. Deadwood is just as much respect for laws—whether man made or heaven inspired—as Seth Bullock had for the reputation of the bad men who were making Deadwood no place for the prohibitionist. About everything that laws prohibit nowadays was a part of Deadwood's program. Such rough and ready gent as Big Bill Cotton, Curley Demond, Scar Face Wilson and the original Omaha Kid held sway in Deadwood when Seth Bullock earned to install law and order there. Tuscon Tommie McDonnigal and Baldy Cartart ran the inevitable El Dorado where roulette, poker, ran tan and the like were to be had in the big barroom and Panny Fedora, Yellow Katy and similarly jocular ladies held carnival in the dance hall beyond.

Seth Bullock set forth, an hour after his election, to get the law of the land, and straightway he opened operations. It is said of him that he arrested thirty-seven bad men that night, using such measures as beating recalcitrants into submission with the butt of his gun and carefully shooting others in those sections of the anatomy that housed no vital organs. Seth was an instantaneous success. He dominated Deadwood by becoming just a little tougher than any citizen who was catalogued as tough before his election. Those years for a night had but to apply to Seth and they were given complete satisfaction.

Seth managed by these direct methods to convert Deadwood into a clean town as the West of those days boasted; and he had a thoroughly enjoyable time doing it.

Friendship With Roosevelt.

When Theodore Roosevelt set up his ranch on the Little Missouri River in 1883 Seth, who lived but sixty miles away, ran down to see him. There and then a friendship that was genuine and permanent began.

It was in Seth Bullock's ballkick that Roosevelt met such celebrities as Crazy Steve, Hell Roarin' Bill Jones and other two listed and two gun celebrities given prominence in the former President's autobiography.

At Roosevelt's inauguration, Bullock took a band of cow punchers to Washington and with them participated in the inaugural parade.

In 1910 Seth and his family went to Europe. It was not without much diplomacy on the part of Mrs. Bullock that Seth made a few sartorial concessions before embarking on the liner Cedric. She managed to get him into a hard boiled shirt and Eastern shoes, but he clung to his Stetson so loudly and fiercely that the ship's bowler hat destined for his sun-burned brow.

In London, Captain Bullock met Colonel Roosevelt again. The Colonel had just returned from his African explorations, and he and the Sheriff of Deadwood did London to the vast satisfaction of that city. Likewise they traveled Scotland together.

DEBS SATISFIED TO REMAIN IN PRISON

Socialist Would Spend Whole Life in Cell Rather Than Give Up Principles.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 24.—Eugene V. Debs is not personally seeking a pardon from the President. He has renounced none of his principles and will serve out his ten-year term, and for the rest of his life, if necessary, if it requires a surrendering of any of his principles to get a pardon, he said at the Federal penitentiary in Atlanta today.

Debs said Clarence Darrow, Chicago lawyer, was interested in his case, and had discussed with Secretary of War Baker and Attorney General Palmer the question of obtaining a Presidential pardon. He said the matter had been discussed with the President, with the result that word comes to Debs that "now is not the time" for the granting of the clemency.

There is a germ of revolution in the strike of the steel men now in progress, according to Debs. "All classes of labor that have grievances are watching the strike of the steel men," Debs declared. "If they lose, next month it will be the railroad workers, unless they are given their demands. All of this serves its purpose. Some day they will all strike together."

LONELY RACE HORSE HUNTS FOR OWNER

BEAVER, Pa., Sept. 24.—Getting lonesome for his owner, Wearie Willie, a racehorse, owned by C. J. Collins, of Wooster, Ohio, leaped from the car in Conway yards and traced his owner across the tracks.

While the horse was being brought here for the county fair races the train stopped and Collins went for a bucket of water. He had had to go until the horse began to whinny, following this up by breaking through the fastenings. He followed his owner over the maze of tracks and found him at a pump.

"VICTORY NIGHT" AT HYATTSVILLE CARNIVAL

Tonight will be "Victory Night" at the annual carnival and dance at Hyattsville, Md. Victory buttons will be presented at tonight's festivities to ex-service men or relatives upon showing of discharge papers. A representative of the War Department will make the presentations.

All classes of labor are threatened to strike on October 1 unless mill owners grant their demands. The weavers demand a forty-four-hour week; 75 cents an hour with a minimum of $33 per week; loom fixers demand $1 an hour or a minimum wage of $44 per week.

GERMANY TO TAKE HER CAPTIVES HOME

Berlin Charters Ten Ships to Hasten Prisoners to Fatherland.

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—In order to facilitate the return of German war prisoners from England, ten steamers have been chartered.

They will sail to bring back the repatriated captives as soon as the German government is advised as to the British port of debarkation.

PEACE NEAR IN HUB COP STRIKE

BOSTON, Sept. 24.—Peace was believed to be near in the policemen's strike today. A committee of prominent business men who have interested themselves in bringing about a settlement, together with several men of prominence in political and labor circles, were said to be awaiting a conference with Governor Coolidge. This conference, it was arranged by Henry Endicott, millionaire shoe manufacturer, one of those invited by President Wilson to the labor conference October 6 at Washington.

A compromise settlement plan is said to have been devised whereby the men get their old positions, provided they give up affiliations with the American Federation of Labor but remain a union within the police department.

ROCKVILLE NEWS

ROCKVILLE, Md., Sept. 24.—The recently-chosen Democratic State Central Committee for Montgomery county—Frank J. Downey, Dr. John Gardner, and Enos C. Keys—met here today and organized by electing Mr. Downey chairman, Dr. Gardner secretary, and Mr. Keys treasurer. The committee will meet in the near future, and it is understood, nominate Charles J. Maddox for county surveyor, to fill a vacancy on the ticket. They also will fill thirteen vacancies on the county committee.

RETURNS TO CELL TO AID HIS FATHER

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Sept. 24.—After Frank Fredyoster, of New York, had escaped from Hampton Farms near here, he was captured, served the remainder of his term, then was rearrested and locked up in Orange county jail at Goshen, to await action of the grand jury, which is expected to indict him for escaping. Several weeks ago the young man was bailed out by his father, who deposited $200 cash.

Today, Fredyoster walked into the office of Sheriff Leonard and asked to be locked up again in order that his father might have the $200, which he greatly needed. His request was complied with and the father will have the money returned to him at once.

SHOES COST $35 IN RUMANIA.

GALATZ, Sept. 24.—Shoes cost $35 a pair in Rumania, so half the population was going barefoot until a Red Cross relief ship recently arrived with 150 tons of American footwear.
